POLITIQUE ET PRATIQUES DE RÉMUNÉRATION

La politique de rémunération d'Amundi Luxembourg S.A. est conforme aux obligations détaillées dans la Directive européenne 2014/91/UE entrée en vigueur le 18 mars 2016 et transposée dans la loi luxembourgeoise le 10 mai 2016. La politique de rémunération, qui se base sur le cadre de rémunération mis en place par le groupe Amundi, est revue et approuvée annuellement par le Conseil d'administration d'Amundi Luxembourg. Cette politique fait l'objet d'un examen indépendant de la fonction Conformité interne. Cette politique fait l'objet d'un examen indépendant par la fonction Conformité interne. La principale évolution pour 2022 est que la politique de rémunération a été liée à « Amundi Ambition 2025 », avec par conséquent l'ajout de critères ESG et du Risque en matière de Durabilité. Aucune autre modification importante n'a été apportée à la politique de rémunération adoptée pour les années précédentes. La politique applicable pour 2022 a été approuvée par le Conseil d'Administration d'Amundi Luxembourg le 22 juin 2022. Le Comité de rémunération du groupe Amundi évalue la politique de rémunération du groupe une fois par an. L'évaluation de 2022 a eu lieu le 1er février 2022. Les objectifs de la politique et des pratiques de rémunération sont compatibles avec une gestion saine et efficace des risques, la favorisent et alignent la rémunération sur les performances et les risques à long terme en vue d'éviter les conflits d'intérêts. Les composantes de la rémunération fixe sont liées aux fonctions concernées, aux services professionnels rendus et au périmètre de responsabilité. Elles tiennent compte du niveau de qualification, des niveaux de salaires sur le marché, de l'expérience et des compétences requises pour chacun poste, ainsi que du niveau d'excellence démontré. La rémunération variable est destinée à promouvoir le développement durable à long terme de la Société de Gestion et un système de gestion des risques solide et efficace. La rémunération variable tient compte de la performance du salarié, du département au sein duquel il travaille et du groupe Amundi dans son ensemble. Elle se fonde à la fois sur des critères financiers et autres. Amundi Luxembourg S.A. et le groupe Amundi ont défini l'ensemble des personnels identifiés ayant autorité ou exerçant une influence sur les fonds gérés par Amundi et qui sont donc susceptibles d'avoir un impact sur la performance ou le profil de risque des fonds.

MONTANTS DE RÉMUNÉRATION ACCORDÉS

Au 31 décembre 2022, Amundi Luxembourg S.A., la Société de Gestion, agit en qualité de Société de Gestion ou de gestionnaire de fonds d'investissement alternatifs pour plusieurs OPCVM et fonds d'investissement alternatifs autonomes.

La rémunération totale qu'Amundi Luxembourg S.A. a versée à ses collaborateurs au cours de l'année civile 2022 est la suivante (exprimée en EUR) :

	Nbre de bénéficiaires	Rémunération fixe	Rémunération variable	Total
Personnel	97	8.867.445	1.732.476	10.599.921
Dont
- Personnel identifié	12	1.976.045	695.120	2.671.164
- Autre personnel	85	6.891.400	1.037.357	7.928.757

Amundi Index Solution Fund représentait au 31 décembre 2022 environ 45% du total des actifs sous gestion d'Amundi Luxembourg S.A. et environ 51% au 30 septembre 2023. Les éléments de rémunération indiqués ci-dessus se rapportent aux activités relatives à l'ensemble des fonds gérés.

Les salariés d'Amundi Luxembourg S.A. et du groupe Amundi qui ont été nommés au Conseil d'administration de la Société de Gestion et/ou du Fonds renoncent à toute rémunération pour l'ensemble des fonds gérés.

Aucun employé de la Société de Gestion ne perçoit de montants, notamment sous forme de parts d'intéressement et de commissions de performance, qui seraient versés directement par les OPCVM ou les FIA gérés

RÈGLEMENT SUR LA PUBLICATION D'INFORMATIONS EN MATIÈRE DE DURABILITÉ DANS LE SECTEUR DES SERVICES FINANCIERS ("SFDR")

REGLEMENT RELATIF A LA PUBLICATION D'INFORMATIONS

Le 18 décembre 2019, le Conseil européen et le Parlement européen ont annoncé qu'ils avaient trouvé un accord politique concernant le règlement relatif à la publication d'informations, qui vise à créer un cadre paneuropéen censé faciliter l'investissement durable. Le règlement relatif à la publication d'informations propose une approche harmonisée pour les communications relatives au développement durable destinées aux investisseurs dans le secteur des services financiers de l'Espace économique européen.

Aux fins du règlement sur la publication d'informations, la Société de gestion répond aux critères définissant un « acteur des marchés financiers » tandis que chaque Compartiment possède le statut de « produit financier ».

Pour des informations plus détaillées concernant la manière dont un Compartiment répond aux exigences du règlement relatif à la publication d'informations, veuillez consulter le supplément relatif au Compartiment concerné. Veuillez consulter également la section « Investissement durable » du Prospectus du Fonds et la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi sur le site www.amundi.com.

Comme l'exige l'article 11 du règlement relatif à la publication d'informations, le Fonds fait les déclarations suivantes :

Dans le cadre de la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi, Amundi a développé sa propre approche de notation ESG. La notation ESG d'Amundi vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'un émetteur, c'est-à-dire sa capacité à anticiper et à gérer les risques et opportunités en matière de durabilité inhérents à son secteur d'activité et à sa propre situation. En utilisant les notations ESG d'Amundi, les gestionnaires de portefeuille prennent en compte les risques en matière de durabilité dans leurs décisions d'investissement. Amundi applique des politiques d'exclusion ciblées à toutes ses stratégies d'investissement actif en excluant les entreprises en contradiction avec la Politique d'investissement responsable, par exemple celles qui ne respectent pas les conventions internationales, les cadres reconnus sur le plan international ou les réglementations nationales.

Compartiments relevant de l'article 8 (Art.11.1)

Les Compartiments énumérés ci-dessous sont classifiés comme relevant de l'article 8 du règlement sur la publication d'informations et visent à promouvoir des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales. En plus d'appliquer la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi, les Compartiments relevant de l'article 8 visent à promouvoir de telles caractéristiques par le biais d'investissements, ce qui permet d'obtenir une notation ESG de leurs portefeuilles supérieure à celle de leur indice de référence ou univers d'investissement respectif. La notation ESG du portefeuille est la moyenne pondérée par les actifs sous gestion de la notation ESG des émetteurs selon le modèle de notation ESG d'Amundi.

Au cours de l'exercice sous revue, le Gestionnaire d'investissement a promu en permanence les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales en appliquant les méthodologies susmentionnées.

Vu la focalisation des investissements et les classes d'actifs / les secteurs dans lesquels ils investissent, les gestionnaires d'investissement de tous les autres Compartiments, non classifiés comme relevant de l'article 8 ou de l'article 9 du règlement relatif à la publication d'informations, n'ont pas intégré la prise en considération d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au processus d'investissement du Compartiment. Il convient par conséquent de noter que les investissements sous-jacents de ces Compartiments ne tiennent pas compte des critères de l'UE relatifs aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Dénomination du produit :

AMUNDI CAC 40 ESG

Identifiant d'entité juridique :

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG Moody's de l'indice est 68,00

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG Moody's pour la période précédente était de 68

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 70,67 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

CAC 40 ESG Index est un indice d'actions représentatif des quarante principales entreprises suivant des pratiques environnementales, sociales et de gouvernance strictes au sein du CAC Large 60 Index (l'« Indice parent »), qui représente les soixante principales actions sur le marché boursier de Paris. L'Indice vise à réduire l'empreinte carbone pondérée et à améliorer le ratio green-to-brown par rapport à son Indice parent.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de marché large ?

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

X

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires), le MDAX (composé des cinquante entreprises les plus importantes après le DAX en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires), et le TecDAX (qui inclut les trente valeurs technologiques les plus grandes et les plus liquides en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires). L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score Risque ESG Sustainalytics de l'indice est 77,14

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG Sustainalytics pour la période précédente était de 76,39

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

● Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 59,74 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

● En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Le DAX 50 ESG réplique la performance des cinquante principales actions qui affichent une performance comparable sur la base de leurs critères ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance). L'Indice se compose de titres inclus dans le HDAX, qui est représentatif des grandes et moyennes entreprises dont les titres sont négociés sur le marché d'actions allemand, et ayant leur siège social ou d'exploitation situé en Allemagne. L'univers du HDAX englobe l'ensemble des entreprises représentées dans le DAX (l'indice allemand des valeurs de premier plan qui suit la performance des quarante entreprises les plus importantes sur le marché boursier allemand en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires), le MDAX (composé des cinquante entreprises les plus importantes après le DAX en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires), et le TecDAX (qui inclut les trente valeurs technologiques les plus grandes et les plus liquides en termes de capitalisation boursière et de chiffre d'affaires).

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable,

il présentait une proportion de 69,05 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Euro Corporate 1-5 Year ESG Sustainability SRI Bond. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,764

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice iBoxx MSCI ESG EUR FRN Investment Grade Corporates TCA. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 8,034

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 8

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Secteur	% d'actifs
Finance	71,96 %
Consommation discrétionnaire	11,61 %
Industrie	7,86 %
Consommation de base	7,36 %
Forex	-0,00 %
Liquidités	0,03 %

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :
 - du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 61,23 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI ESG EUR Corporates 0-1 TCA. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,533

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,5

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 5,31 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;

- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;

- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 60,08 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

L'Iboxx MSCI ESG EUR Corporates 0-1 TCA Index est un indice obligataire représentatif d'obligations à taux fixe, de type « investment grade » libellées en euro, émises par des entreprises privées (les « obligations d'entreprises ») ayant une durée résiduelle allant d'un mois à un an et appliquant des critères ESG et sectoriels supplémentaires pour la sélection des titres.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le pourcentage du compartiment alloué à des obligations considérées comme des « obligations vertes » par Bloomberg est de 30,49 %. Les obligations non vertes dans le compartiment sont également considérées comme alignées sur les caractéristiques E/S en conséquence des règles d'inclusion suivies par le prestataire d'indice qui stipulent que les émetteurs de pays classés « Not Free » par Freedom House sont exclus de l'indice.

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 13,94 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice iBoxx MSCI ESG EUR High Yield Corporates TCA. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,958

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 6,74

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Global Aggregate 500MM ex Securitized Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral Index. Il s'agit d'un indice obligatoire représentatif des obligations à taux fixe de qualité « investment grade » mondiales de pays développés et émergents, qui suit les règles de l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Global Aggregate 500MM ex Securitized Index (l'« Indice parent ») et qui applique des critères sectoriels et ESG pour la sélection des titres. L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,545

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,46

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 1,31 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

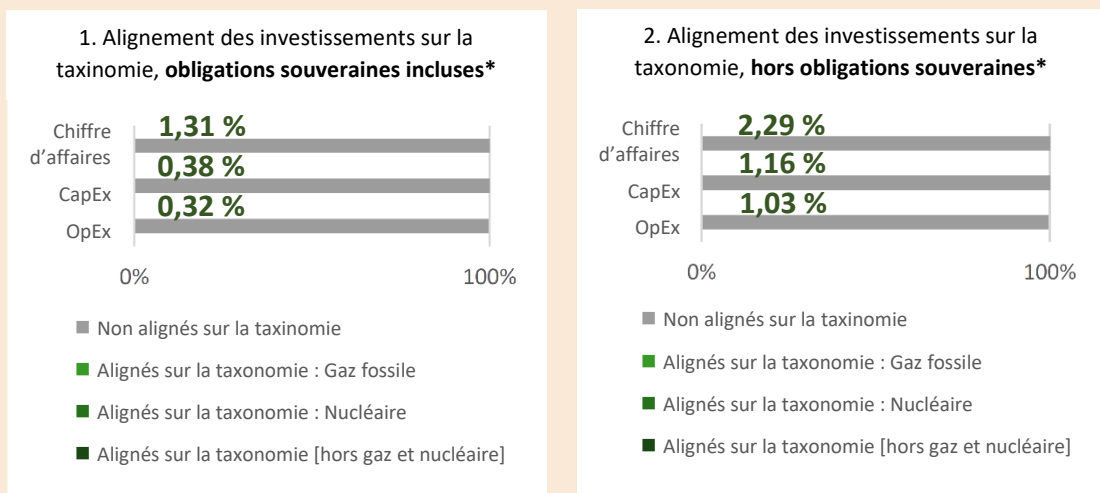

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 10,97 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Global Aggregate 500MM ex Securitized 1-5 Year Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral Index. Il s'agit d'un indice obligatoire représentatif des obligations mondiales à taux fixe de qualité « investment grade » de pays développés et émergents assorties d'une échéance résiduelle comprise entre 1 et 5 ans, qui suit les règles de l'indice Global Agg ex Securitized 500mn 1-5 Year (l'« Indice parent ») et qui applique des critères sectoriels et ESG pour la sélection des titres. L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,676

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,59

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 1,06 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 11,10 % à la fin de la période. Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Bloomberg MSCI Global Aggregate 500MM ex Securitized 1-5 Year Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral Index est un indice obligataire représentatif des obligations mondiales à taux fixe de qualité « investment grade » de pays développés et émergents assorties d'une échéance résiduelle comprise entre 1 et 5 ans, qui suit les règles de l'indice Global Agg ex Securitized 500mn 1-5 Year (l'« Indice parent ») et qui applique des critères sectoriels et ESG pour la sélection des titres.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg BioEnergy ESG. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score Risque ESG Sustainalytics de l'indice est 25,69

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 17,95 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Global Corporate ESG Sustainability SRI 1-5 Year. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,302

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,32

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 2,42 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Euro Aggregate Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,883

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,820

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 3,48 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 20,42 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Bloomberg MSCI Euro Aggregate Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral Index est un indice obligataire représentatif des obligations à taux fixe de qualité « investment grade » libellées en euro, qui suit les règles de l'indice Bloomberg Euro Aggregate Corporate Index (l'« Indice parent ») et applique des critères sectoriels et ESG pour la sélection des titres.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Euro Corporate ESG Sustainability SRI. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

● Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 6,79 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 62,59 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 68,32 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI Euro Corporate ESG BBB+ Sustainability SRI 0-3 Year. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,68

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 61,58 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 45,67 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI EM Asia SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 225,575

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 208,3

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile

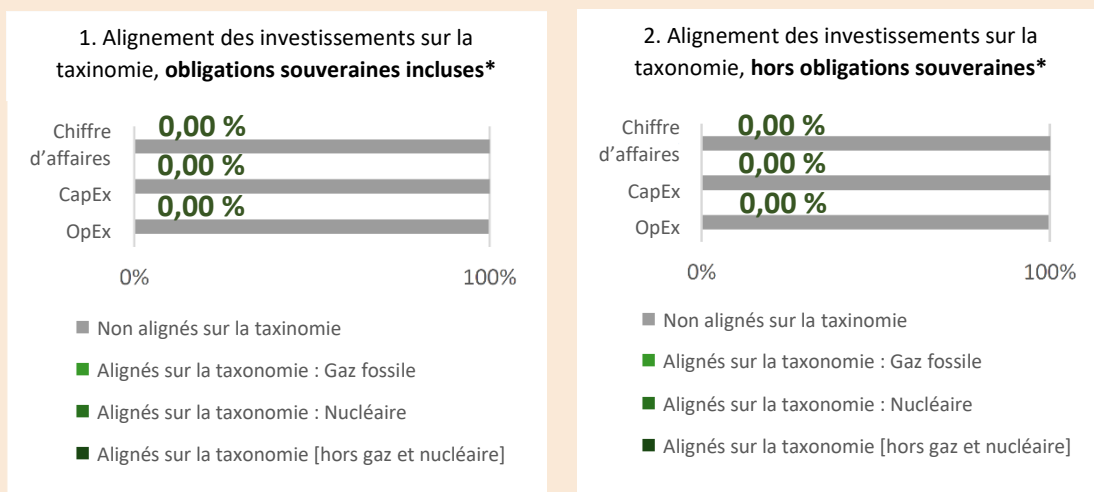

Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxinomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

¹ Les activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire sont conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE uniquement si elles contribuent à limiter le changement climatique (« atténuation du changement climatique ») et ne causent pas de préjudice important à un objectif de la taxinomie de l'UE. Les critères complets pour les activités liées au gaz fossile et à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE sont énoncés dans le règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1214 de la Commission.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxinomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxinomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxinomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans

Les activités alignées sur la taxinomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :
- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

les activités transitoires était de 0,00 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,00 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

● Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

Ce symbole

représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 34,28 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,01 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

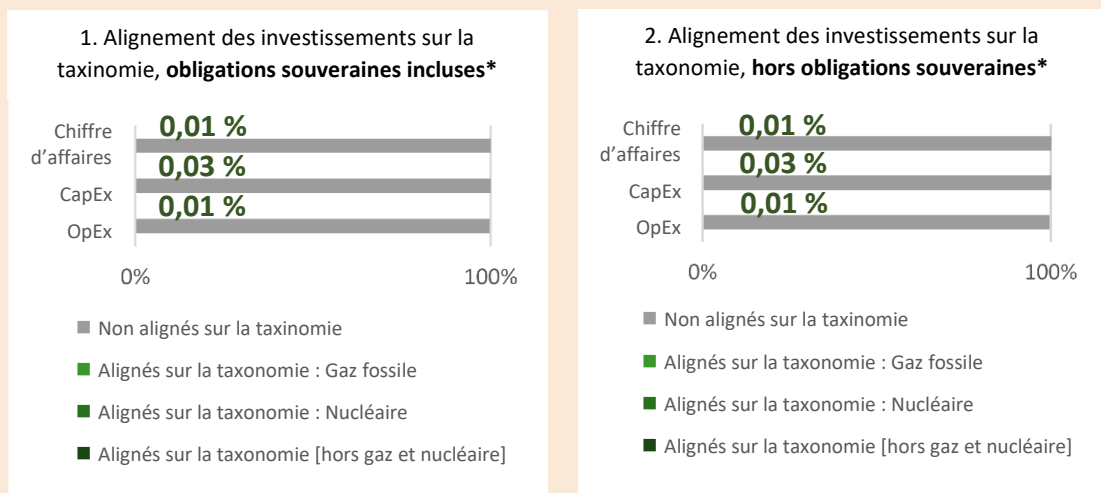

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 32,80 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Emerging Markets ESG Broad CTB Select Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Emerging markets Index, représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans vingt-sept pays émergents (en novembre 2021) (« l'Indice parent »). L'Indice exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental, tout en surpondérant les entreprises affichant un excellent score ESG. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de l'indice de référence « Transition climatique » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif

environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI EM (Emerging Markets) SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 253,112

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 240,232

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 39,38 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI EM (Emerging Markets) SRI Filtered PAB Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Emerging Markets, indice représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans vingt-sept pays émergents (en novembre 2021) (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant d'excellentes notations ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 89,98 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI EM (Emerging Markets) SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 204,052

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 228,633

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 5,19 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 69,17 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Europe ESG Broad CTB Select Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 325,487

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 310,612

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 3,27 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 60,41 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Europe ESG Broad CTB Select Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe Index, représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans les pays des marchés développés en Europe (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental, tout en surpondérant les entreprises affichant un excellent score ESG. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de l'indice de référence « Transition climatique » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Europe SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 193,41

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 180,691

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 4,44 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 68,86 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

environnementales et/ou sociales sont respectées à chaque date de rééquilibrage. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promeut.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Europe SRI Filtered PAB Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe, indice représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans quinze pays des marchés développés en Europe (en novembre 2021) (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant d'excellentes notations ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Japan SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 270,007

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 376,2

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

Les critères complets pour les activités liées au gaz fossile et à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE sont énoncés dans le règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1214 de la Commission.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 35,42 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Japan SRI Filtered PAB Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Japan index, représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations du marché japonais (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant d'excellentes notations ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI North America Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 153,179

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 31,87 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Pacific ex Japan SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 188,107

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 376,2

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

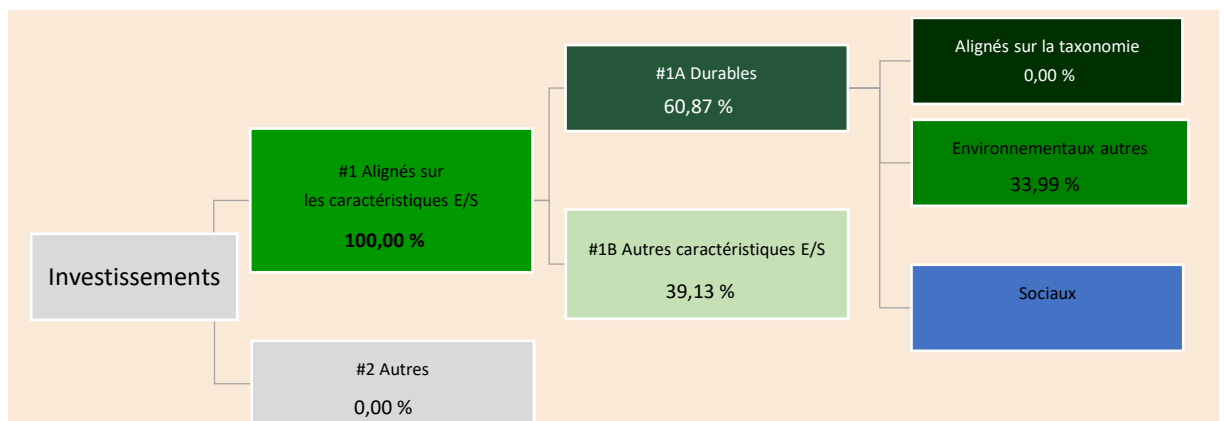

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Secteur	% d'actifs
Finance	28,75 %
Immobilier	21,96 %
Matériaux	16,89 %
Industrie	16,02 %
Soins de santé	8,72 %
Consommation de base	4,87 %
Services aux collectivités	2,58 %
Forex	-0,00 %
Liquidités	0,20 %

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 33,99 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

● En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Pacific ex Japan SRI Filtered PAB Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Pacific ex Japan, indice représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans quatre des cinq pays des marchés développés dans la région du Pacifique, hors Japon (en novembre 2021) (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant d'excellentes notations ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondre les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

● Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 47,80 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI USA SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 97,915

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 101,867

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

● Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 38,93 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI World SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 142,355

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 149

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 1,04 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant d'excellentes notations ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI US Corporate ESG Sustainability SRI. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,951

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 6,9

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,36 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

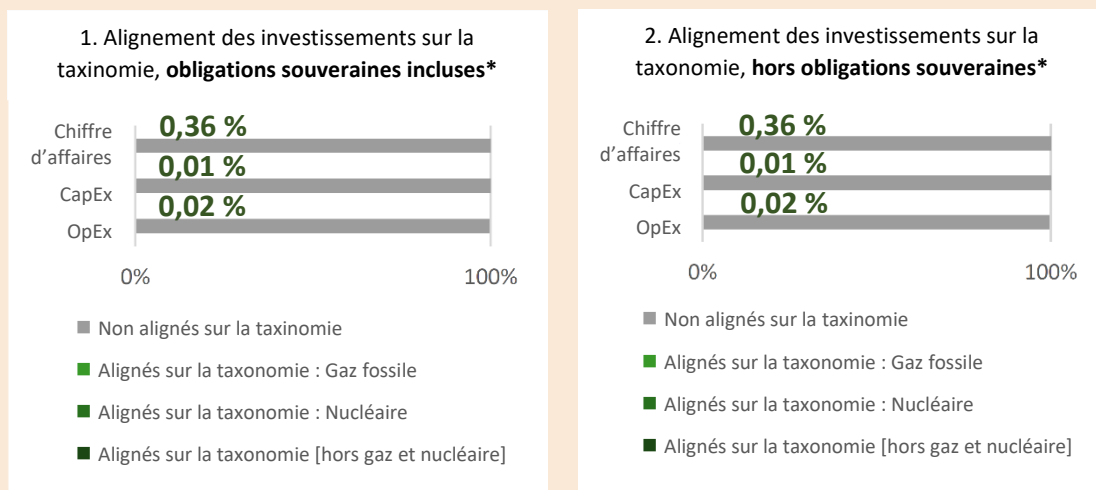

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 31,14 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice, le MIB ESG. Celui-ci est un indice d'actions représentant les quarante plus grandes entreprises suivant des pratiques environnementales, sociales et de gouvernance strictes parmi les soixante entreprises italiennes les plus liquides cotées sur Euronext Milan MTA et MIV. L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 6,40 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 49,04 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI AC Far East ex Japan ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped Net USD. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,731

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 6,7

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 20,22 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI China ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,206

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 6

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

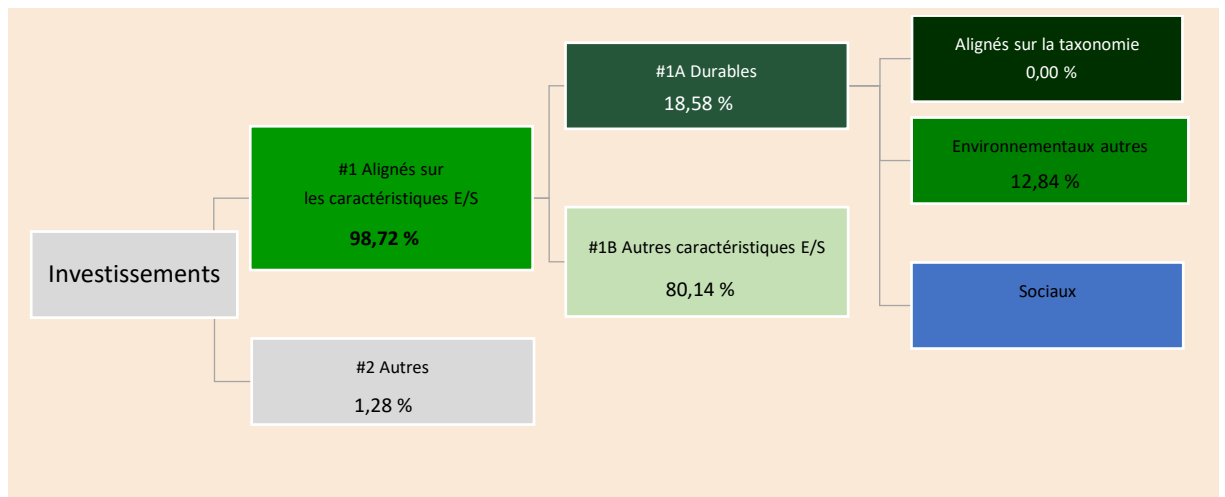

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Secteur	% d'actifs
Technologie de l'information	26,00 %
Consommation discrétionnaire	19,94 %
Services de communication	18,13 %
Industrie	13,43 %

Liquidités	0,22 %

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 12,84 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI China Tech IMI All Share Stock Connect ESG Index cherche à représenter la performance de sociétés associées au développement de nouveaux produits et services à partir d'innovations technologiques qui conduisent à des percées dans des domaines comme l'internet et la numérisation, la mobilité, la technologie autonome, l'automatisation industrielle et la santé numérique. Il exclut les sociétés impliquées dans certaines activités controversées ou qui ont des notations de controverse selon MSCI ESG ou des notes ESG de MSCI relativement faibles.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Une comparaison de l'Indice répliqué par le Compartiment par rapport à son Indice parent a déjà été détaillée à la section Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

X

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 36,83 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI EM ESG Leaders 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,494

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 8,7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. - Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,02 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 29,74 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI EM ex China Region ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,609

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 6,5

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de marché large ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 84,89 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI EMU Climate Paris Aligned Filtered Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 195,744

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente n'est pas disponible pour ce compartiment, car l'indice que le compartiment réplique a changé en juin 2023

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

● Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 8,92 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 71,91 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Les indicateurs de durabilité sont accessibles en tout temps dans le système de gestion du portefeuille afin que les gérants de portefeuille puissent évaluer les conséquences de leurs décisions d'investissements.

Ces indicateurs sont intégrés au cadre de contrôle d'Amundi, et les responsabilités sont partagées entre, d'une part, le premier niveau de contrôles effectués par les équipes d'investissements elles-mêmes et, d'autre part, le deuxième niveau de contrôles systématiques exercés par les équipes du risque, qui surveillent la conformité aux caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le fonds.

Par ailleurs, la Politique Investissement Responsable d'Amundi établit une approche active de l'engagement qui favorise le dialogue avec les sociétés bénéficiaires d'investissements, y compris celles qui figurent au portefeuille de ce produit. Notre Engagement Report annuel, accessible à l'adresse <https://legroupe.amundi.com/documentation-esg>, fournit des détails sur cette politique d'engagement et ses résultats.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Ce produit n'a pas d'indice de référence ESG.

● En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI EMU Climate Paris Aligned Filtered Index réplique un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI EMU, indice représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans les marchés développés au sein de l'Union économique et monétaire européenne (l'« Indice parent »). L'indice est conçu pour aider les investisseurs qui cherchent à réduire leur exposition aux risques de la transition climatique et aux risques climatiques physiques et qui souhaitent saisir des opportunités créées par la transition vers une économie sobre en carbone, tout en restant alignés sur les exigences de l'Accord de Paris. L'indice inclut les recommandations du TCFD (Groupe de travail sur l'information financière relative aux changements climatiques) et est conçu pour faire mieux que les normes minimales de l'indice de référence Accord de Paris de l'Union.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI EMU ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 6,951

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 8,7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. - Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 5,61 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 67,61 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI EMU ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped Index est un indice d'actions basé sur l'indice MSCI EMU Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif d'actions de grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans dix pays développés (en septembre 2020) au sein de l'Union économique et monétaire (UEM) européenne, émises par des entreprises affichant la meilleure notation ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) dans chacun des secteurs de l'Indice parent.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxonomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice. Le MSCI EMU ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI EMU Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations des dix pays développés au sein de l'Union économique et monétaire européenne. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »). L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 8,244

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 8,3

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,05 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 2,26 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 69,22 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI EMU ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI EMU Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations des dix pays développés au sein de l'Union économique et monétaire européenne. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »).

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 70,90 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Europe Climate Change Paris Aligned Select Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 190,83

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 210,1

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 4,30 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,02 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 1,90 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxinomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 62,17 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Europe Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 216,425

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 215,3

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

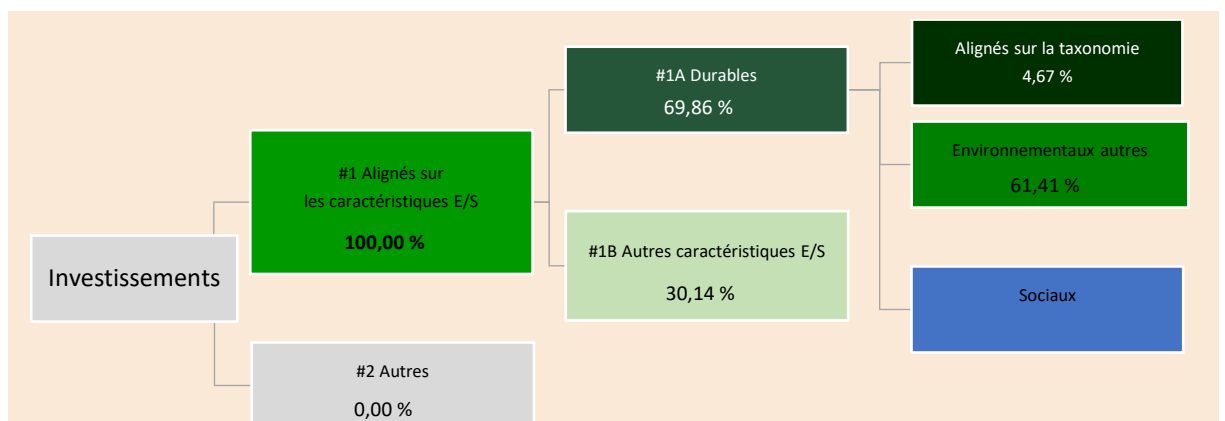

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Secteur	% d'actifs
Soins de santé	23,47 %
Industrie	17,75 %
Finance	17,62 %
Technologie de l'information	10,49 %
Consommation discrétionnaire	10,33 %
Consommation de base	8,02 %

Immobilier	1,09 %
Énergie	0,05 %
Liquidités	0,30 %

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 4,67 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 61,41 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Le MSCI Europe Climate Change CTB Select Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans quinze pays des marchés développés en Europe (en décembre 2020). L'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui repondère les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de l'indice de référence « Transition climatique » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 66,38 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice. Le MSCI Europe ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des marchés des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans quinze pays développés européens. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »). L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 8,26

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 8,3

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 2,41 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 58,47 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Europe ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif de grandes et moyennes capitalisations des quinze pays européens développés. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »).

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 71,34 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice, le MSCI Europe ex Switzerland ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped Index. Il s'agit d'un indice d'actions basé sur l'indice MSCI Europe ex Switzerland Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations de quatorze pays européens développés à l'exception de la Suisse (en mai 2022), émis par des entreprises affichant la meilleure notation ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) dans chacun des secteurs de l'Indice parent. L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 8,613

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 60,94 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Le MSCI Europe ex Switzerland ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Europe ex Switzerland Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations de quatorze pays européens développés à l'exception de la Suisse (en mai 2022), émis par des entreprises affichant la meilleure notation ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) dans chacun des secteurs de l'Indice parent.

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Europe Small Cap ESG Broad CTB Select Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 291,795

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 3,09 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,05 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,87 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 53,40 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

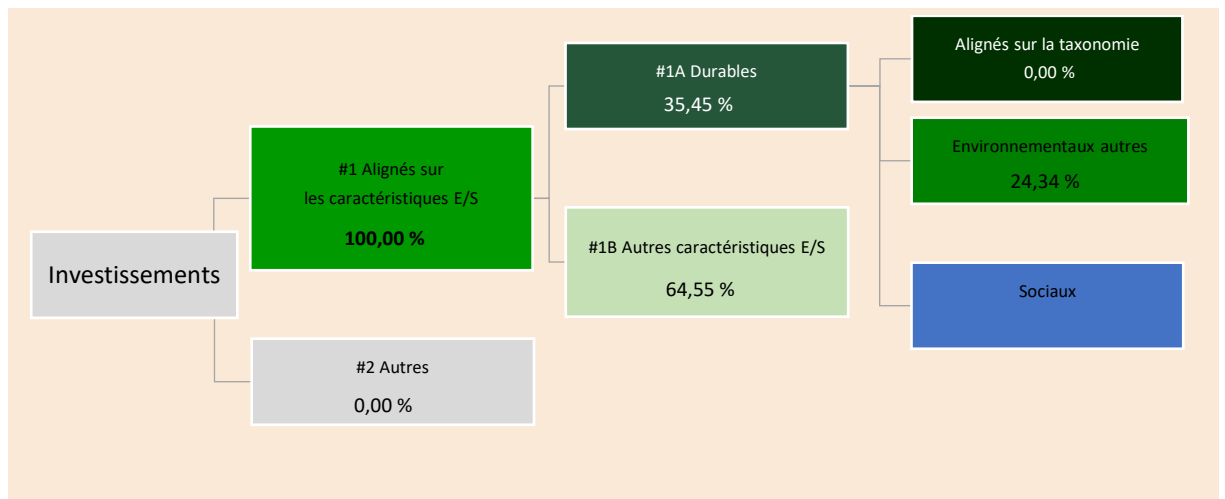

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

● Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 24,34 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI Japan ESG Broad CTB Select Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI Japan Index, représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations du marché japonais (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental, tout en surpondérant les entreprises affichant un excellent score ESG. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondra les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de l'indice de référence « Transition climatique » de l'Union européenne.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

Caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales

Ce produit financier a-t-il un objectif d'investissement durable ?

Oui

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 45,34 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI Pacific Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 321,532

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxinomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI ACWI IMI Robotics & AI ESG Filtered Net Total Return. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,332

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,17 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

Une comparaison de l'Indice répliqué par le Compartiment par rapport à son Indice parent a déjà été détaillée à la section Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 73,09 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI UK IMI SRI Filtered PAB Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 252,534

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 295,7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

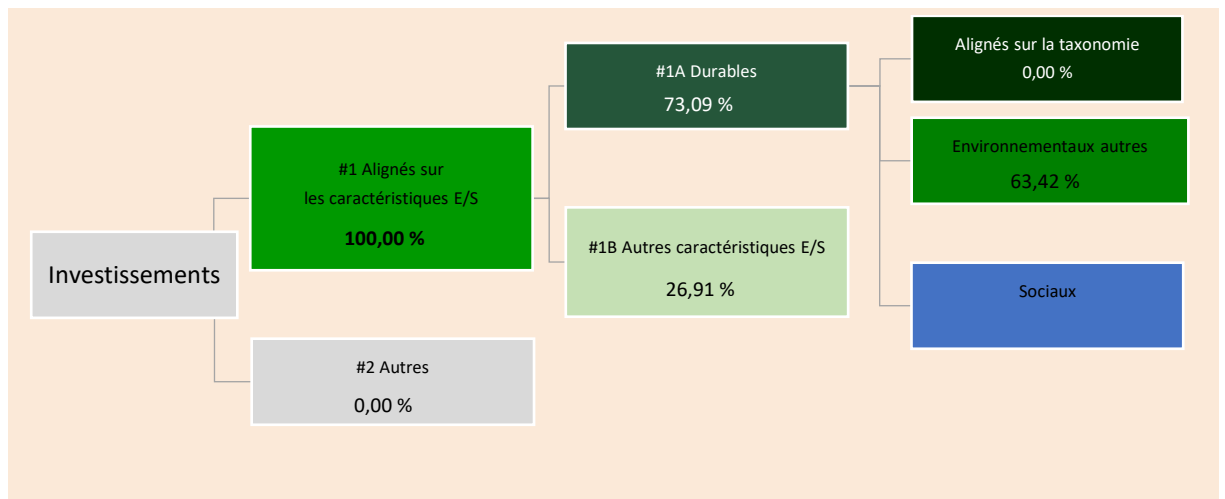

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 63,42 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

● En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI UK IMI SRI Filtered PAB Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI United Kingdom IMI Index, indice représentatif des grandes, moyennes et petites capitalisations du marché britannique (« Indice parent »). L'Indice fournit une exposition aux entreprises affichant la meilleure notation ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) dans chaque secteur de l'Indice parent, et exclut les entreprises dont les produits ont des incidences négatives sur le plan social ou environnemental. En outre, l'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondre les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de la réglementation relative à l'indice de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'Union européenne.

● Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI USA ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 35,75 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI USA ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI USA Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations du marché américain, émis par des entreprises affichant la meilleure notation ESG (Environnemental, Social et de Gouvernance) dans chacun des secteurs de l'Indice parent.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice, MSCI USA ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT, un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI USA Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif du marché américain des grandes et moyennes capitalisations. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »). L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,057

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 30,09 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

MSCI USA ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI USA Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des titres de grandes et moyennes capitalisations du marché américain. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »).

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Le Compartiment faisait la promotion des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales, notamment en répliquant un indice (MSCI World Climate Change Paris Aligned Select Index) respectant les normes minimales des Indices de référence « Accord de Paris » de l'UE dans le cadre du Règlement (UE) 2019/2089 modifiant le Règlement (UE) 2016/1011.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, l'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée, (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice est de 128,519

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

L'intensité carbone moyenne pondérée (« l'intensité WACI ») de l'indice pour la période précédente était de 135,8

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,65 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 37,14 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

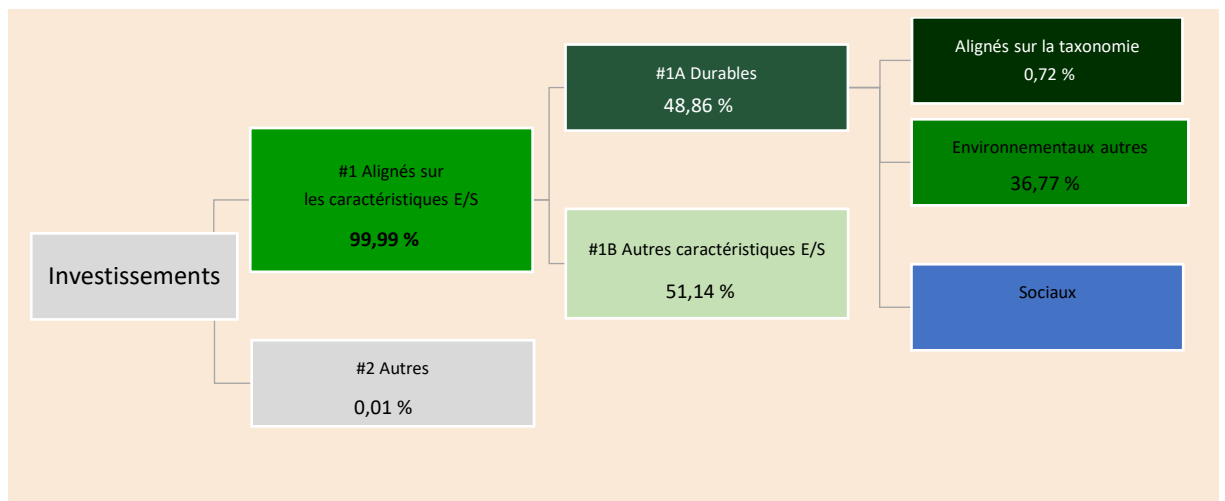

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,72 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 36,77 % à la fin de la période. Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI World Climate Change CTB Select Index est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI World Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans vingt-trois pays des marchés développés (en décembre 2020). L'Indice vise à représenter la performance d'une stratégie qui répondre les titres en fonction des opportunités et des risques associés à la transition climatique afin de rencontrer les exigences minimales de l'indice de référence « Transition climatique » de l'Union européenne.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de marché large ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI WORLD ESG LEADERS SELECT 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,783

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,7

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,56 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

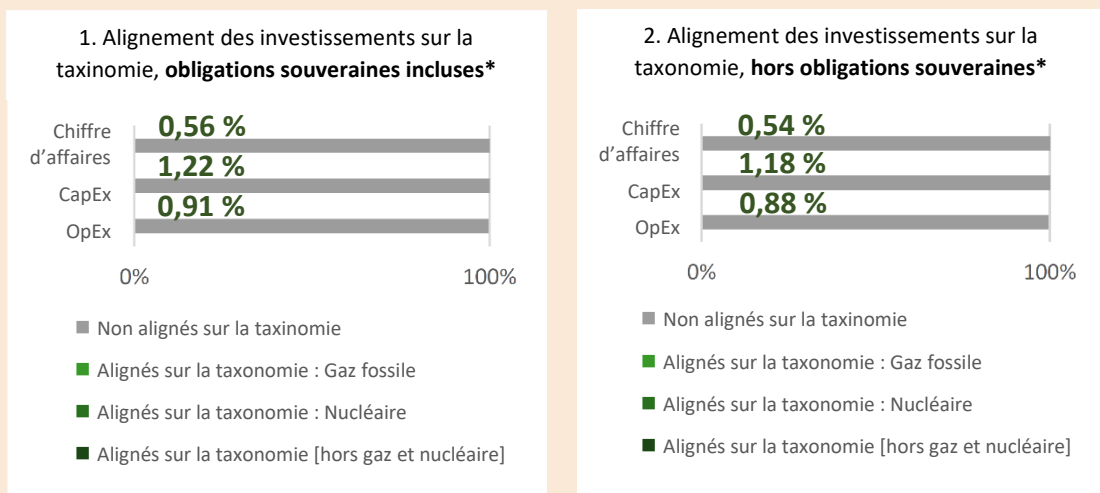

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,00 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,26 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 40,71 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxonomie.

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant un indice, MSCI WORLD ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT, un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI World Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des marchés des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans vingt-trois pays des marchés développés. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »). L'indice est conçu par le prestataire d'indice en appliquant des filtres. La stratégie du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,449

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,4

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Les éléments contraignants dans la méthodologie de l'Indice permettent de s'assurer que les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales sont respectées à chaque date de rééquilibrage. La stratégie

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

MSCI WORLD ESG UNIVERSAL SELECT est un indice d'actions basé sur le MSCI World Index (« Indice parent »), représentatif des marchés des grandes et moyennes capitalisations dans vingt-trois pays des marchés développés. L'indice vise à refléter la performance d'une stratégie qui accroît l'exposition, par rapport à l'Indice parent, aux entreprises affichant à la fois un robuste profil ESG et une tendance positive d'amélioration de ce profil ESG. La méthodologie consiste à ajuster les pondérations de capitalisation boursière à flottant libre en fonction de certains paramètres environnementaux, sociaux et de gouvernance (« ESG »).

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice MSCI USA ESG Leaders Select 5% Issuer Capped. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,486

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

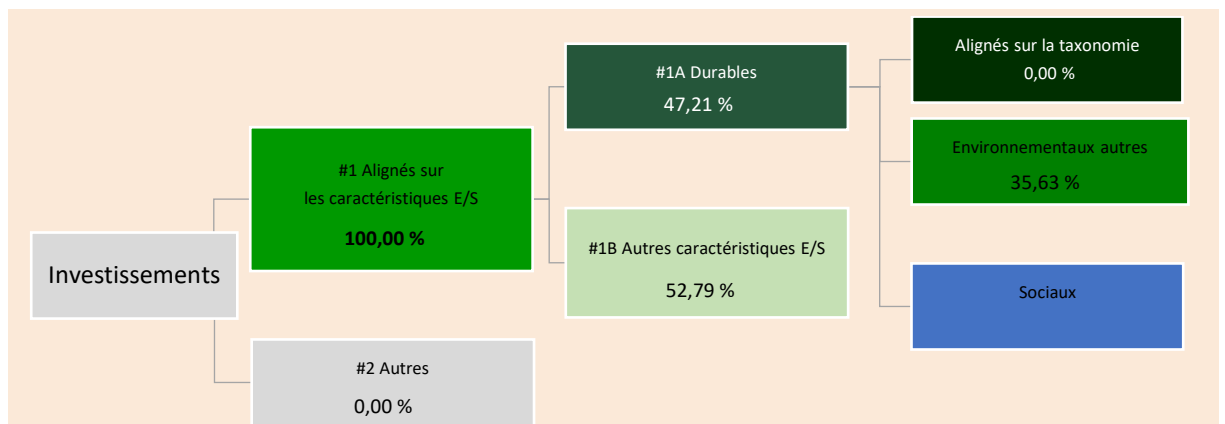

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Investissements les plus importants	Secteur	% d'actifs	Pays

INDEX LEG BP LU1681042948 NOV23	Finance	23,25 %	LUX

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 35,63 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

Au 30 avril 2023 (la dernière date de rééquilibrage), le score S&P DJI ESG de l'indice est 73,49

Le score S&P DJI ESG pour la période précédente était de 71,7

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

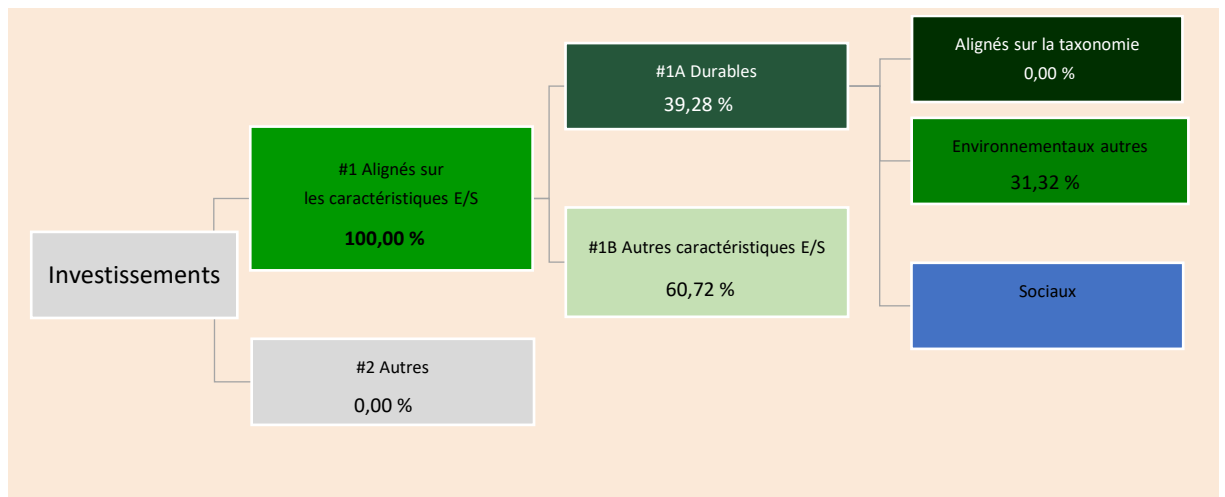

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,00 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci.

● Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

Oui

Dans le gaz fossile

Dans l'énergie nucléaire

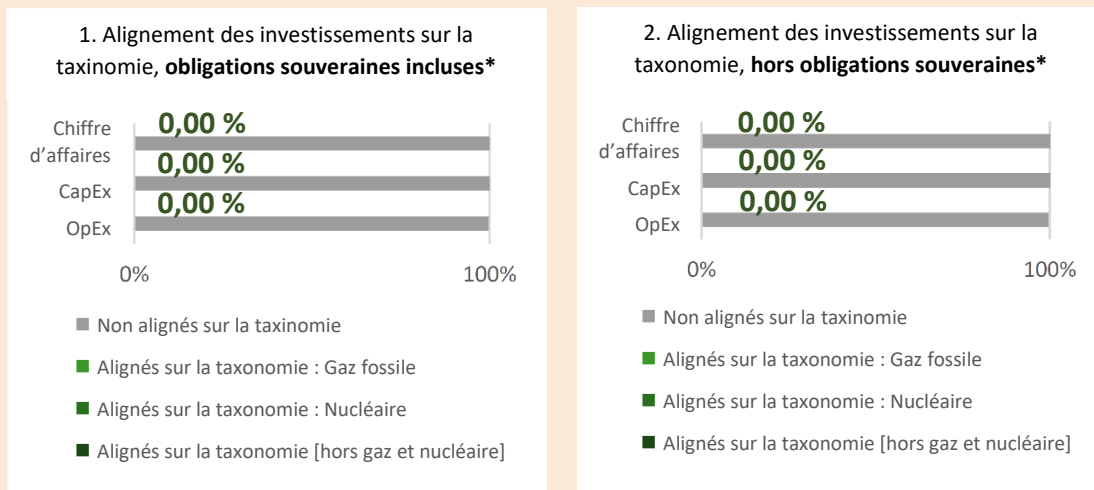

Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

(OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,00 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,00 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 31,32 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

S&P 500 ESG Index (l'« Indice ») est un indice large pondéré selon la capitalisation boursière qui mesure la performances des titres qui respectent les critères de durabilité, tout en maintenant une pondération globale des groupes industriels similaire à celle du S&P 500 (l'« Indice parent »). L'Indice S&P500 est un indice d'actions représentatif des principaux titres négociés aux États-Unis.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de marché large ?

Modèle d'informations périodiques pour les produits financiers visés à l'article 8, paragraphes 1, 2 et 2 bis du règlement (UE) 2019/2088 et à l'article 6, premier alinéa, du règlement (UE) 2020/852

Par investissement durable, on entend un investissement dans une activité économique qui contribue à un objectif environnemental ou social, pour autant qu'il ne cause de préjudice important à aucun de ces objectifs et que les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements appliquent des pratiques de bonne gouvernance.

La taxonomie de l'UE est un système de classification institué par le règlement (UE) 2020/852 qui dresse une liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Ce règlement n'établit pas de liste d'activités économiques durables sur le plan social. Les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental ne sont pas nécessairement alignés sur la taxinomie.

Non

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 65,94 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice STOXX Europe 600 ESG Broad Market. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG ISS de l'indice est 56,95

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG ISS pour la période précédente était de 75,49

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,03 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 1,02 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxonomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxonomie était de 57,10 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxonomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxonomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental : ___%

dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 14,05 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice Bloomberg MSCI US Aggregate ex Securitized Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

- Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,203

- ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Ce document est le premier rapport d'informations périodiques du SFDR publié pour ce compartiment

- Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.

- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,25 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

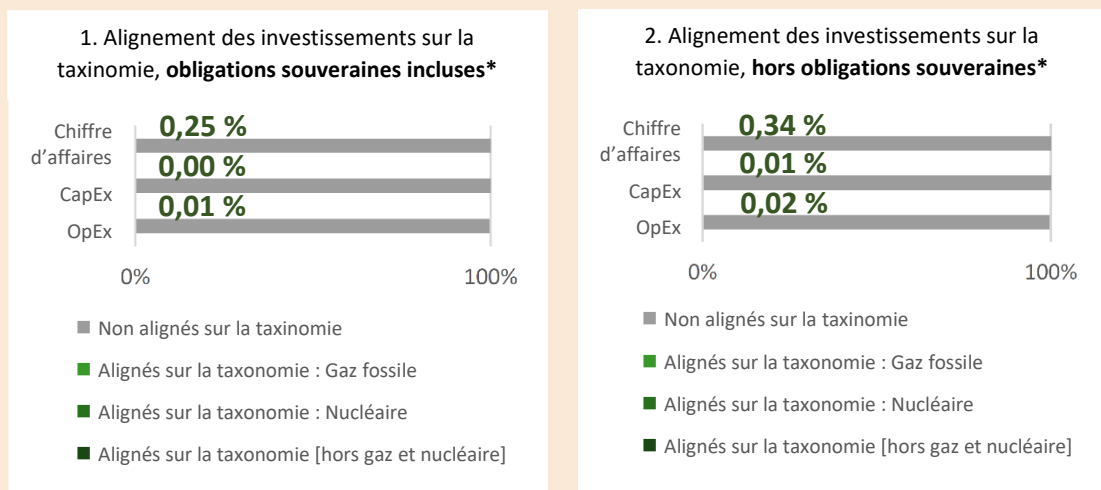

Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,00 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,00 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxinomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 11,33 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

● En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

Bloomberg MSCI US Aggregate ex Securitized Sustainable SRI Sector Neutral Index réplique des titres de dette investment grade à taux fixe assortis d'un montant résiduel d'au moins 500 millions d'USD. L'indice est basé sur l'US Aggregate ex Securitized index (« Indice parent ») et suit des critères supplémentaires pour inclure des émetteurs dont le score ESG MSCI est égal à BBB ou plus. Il exclut les émetteurs impliqués dans des activités interdites, car incohérentes avec certains des critères d'implication des activités fondés sur des valeurs et les émetteurs dont la note controversée ESG MSCI est rouge. Par ailleurs, les trois secteurs (Trésor, lié au gouvernement et entreprises) sont pondérés pour refléter leurs pondérations dans l'Indice parent. Le compartiment promet des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales via, entre autres, la réplication d'un indice qui intègre une notation environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance (ESG). La méthodologie de l'indice est conçue en suivant une approche de best-in-class : les sociétés les mieux classées sont sélectionnées pour constituer l'indice.

dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

Il a réalisé des investissements durables ayant un objectif social : ___%

Il promouvait des caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales (E/S) et bien qu'il n'ait pas eu d'objectif d'investissement durable, il présentait une proportion de 42,53 % d'investissements durables

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui sont considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif environnemental dans des activités économiques qui ne sont pas considérées comme durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE

ayant un objectif social

Il promouvait des caractéristiques E/S, mais n'a pas réalisé d'investissements durables

Dans quelle mesure les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont-elles été atteintes ?

Les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales promues par ce produit financier ont été atteintes en répliquant l'indice iBoxx MSCI ESG USD FRN Investment Grade Corporates TCA. L'objectif d'investissement du Produit est de répliquer un Indice, basé sur un Indice parent. À chaque date de rééquilibrage de l'Indice, au moins 20 % des éléments constitutifs de l'Indice parent ont été supprimés sur la base de critères de durabilité, dont une notation « ESG » (environnementale, sociale et de gouvernance).

Les indicateurs de durabilité permettent de mesurer la manière dont les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier sont atteintes.

● Quelle a été la performance des indicateurs de durabilité ?

À la fin de la période, le score ESG MSCI de l'indice est 7,362

● ... et par rapport aux périodes précédentes ?

Le score ESG MSCI pour la période précédente était de 7,4

● Quels étaient les objectifs des investissements durables que le produit financier entendait partiellement réaliser et comment l'investissement durable a-t-il contribué à ces objectifs ?

L'objectif des investissements durables est d'investir dans des sociétés s'employant à respecter deux critères :

1. suivre les meilleures pratiques environnementales et sociales ; et
2. éviter de fabriquer des produits ou de fournir des services causant un préjudice à l'environnement et à la société.

Pour qu'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements soit considérée comme contribuant à cet objectif, elle doit figurer parmi « les plus performantes » de son secteur d'activité pour au moins un de ses facteurs environnementaux ou sociaux importants.

La définition d'entreprise « la plus performante » s'appuie sur une méthodologie ESG propre à Amundi, qui vise à mesurer la performance ESG d'une société bénéficiaire d'investissements. Pour être considérée comme faisant partie des « plus performantes », une société bénéficiaire d'investissements doit obtenir l'une des trois meilleures notes (A, B ou C, sur une échelle de notation allant de A à G) de son secteur, pour au moins un facteur environnemental ou social important. Les facteurs environnementaux et sociaux importants sont déterminés au niveau de chaque secteur. La détermination de ces facteurs repose sur le cadre d'analyse ESG d'Amundi, qui combine des données extra-financières et une analyse qualitative de thèmes sectoriels et de durabilité associés. Les facteurs désignés importants représentent plus de 10 % du score ESG global. Par exemple, pour le secteur de l'énergie, les facteurs importants sont : émissions et énergie, biodiversité et pollution, santé et sécurité, communautés locales et droits de la personne. Pour obtenir une vue plus globale des secteurs et de leurs facteurs, nous vous invitons à consulter la Déclaration réglementaire ESG d'Amundi sur www.amundi.lu

Pour contribuer aux objectifs ci-dessus, la société bénéficiaire d'investissements ne doit pas présenter d'exposition importante à des activités non compatibles avec ces critères (par exemple, tabac, armes, jeux de hasard, charbon, aviation, production de viande, fabrication d'engrais et de pesticides, production de plastique à usage unique).

La nature durable d'un investissement s'évalue au niveau de la société bénéficiaire d'investissements.

Les principales incidences négatives correspondent aux incidences négatives les plus significatives des décisions d'investissement sur les facteurs de durabilité liés aux questions environnementales, sociales et de personnel, au respect des droits de l'homme et à la lutte contre la corruption et les actes de corruption.

- Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables que le produit financier a partiellement réalisés n'ont-ils pas causé de préjudice important à un objectif d'investissement durable sur le plan environnemental ou social ?

Pour s'assurer que les investissements durables sont conformes au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important », Amundi utilise deux filtres :

En plus des facteurs de durabilité précis traités par le premier filtre, Amundi a élaboré un deuxième filtre, qui ne tient pas compte des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives, afin de s'assurer que l'entreprise n'affiche pas une performance environnementale ou sociale globale par rapport aux autres entreprises du même secteur correspondant à un score environnemental ou social égal ou supérieur à la note E selon le système de notation ESG d'Amundi.

- Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Les indicateurs d'incidences négatives ont été pris en compte grâce au premier filtre, décrit ci-dessus, conforme au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important ».

Le premier filtre de conformité au principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » repose sur le suivi des indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives du tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288, qui compile des données robustes par une combinaison des indicateurs et seuils ou règles spécifiques suivants :

- Avoir une intensité en carbone hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur (ne concerne que les secteurs à forte intensité) ;
- Avoir une diversité au sein du Conseil d'administration hors du dernier décile des sociétés du secteur ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de conditions de travail et de droits de la personne ;
- Être exempt de toute controverse en matière de biodiversité et de pollution.

- Les investissements durables étaient-ils conformes aux principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et aux principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme ? Description détaillée :

Oui, les principes directeurs de l'OCDE à l'intention des entreprises multinationales et les principes directeurs des Nations Unies relatifs aux entreprises et aux droits de l'homme

sont intégrés dans notre méthodologie de notation ESG. Notre outil de notation ESG exclusif évalue les émetteurs à partir des données disponibles auprès de nos fournisseurs de données. Par exemple, le modèle comporte un critère dédié appelé « Implication communautaire et droits de l'homme » qui est appliqué à tous les secteurs en plus d'autres critères liés aux droits de l'homme, notamment les chaînes d'approvisionnement socialement responsables, les conditions de travail et les relations professionnelles. En outre, nous assurons une surveillance des controverses sur une base trimestrielle au minimum, y compris concernant les entreprises identifiées pour des violations des droits de l'homme. Lorsque des controverses surviennent, les analystes évaluent la situation et appliquent un score à la controverse (en utilisant notre propre méthodologie de notation) et déterminent la meilleure marche à suivre. Les scores de controverse sont actualisés tous les trimestres, ce qui permet de suivre la tendance et les actions correctives.

La taxonomie de l'UE établit un principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » en vertu duquel les investissements alignés sur la taxonomie ne devraient pas causer de préjudice important aux objectifs de la taxonomie de l'UE et s'accompagne de critères spécifiques de l'UE.

Le principe consistant à « ne pas causer de préjudice important » s'applique uniquement aux investissements sous-jacents au produit financier qui prennent en compte les critères de l'Union européenne en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental. Les investissements sous-jacents à la portion restante de ce produit financier ne prennent pas en compte les critères de l'Union en matière d'activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental.

Tout autre investissement durable ne doit pas non plus causer de préjudice important aux objectifs environnementaux ou sociaux.

Comment ce produit financier a-t-il pris en considération les principales incidences négatives sur les facteurs de durabilité ?

Le produit prend en compte tous les indicateurs obligatoires des principales incidences négatives conformément au tableau 1 de l'annexe I du règlement délégué (UE) 2022/1288 applicables à sa stratégie, et est soumis à une combinaison de politiques d'exclusion (normatives et sectorielles) et d'approches en matière d'engagement et de vote :

- Exclusion : Amundi a défini des règles d'exclusion normatives, par activité et par secteur, couvrant une partie des indicateurs clés des principales incidences négatives énumérés par le Règlement sur la publication d'informations.
- Engagement : l'engagement est un processus continu et ciblé visant à influencer les activités ou le comportement des entreprises. L'objectif de l'engagement peut être divisé en deux catégories : s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore la façon dont il intègre la dimension environnementale et sociale à ses activités, et s'engager auprès d'un émetteur pour qu'il améliore son impact sur les questions environnementales, sociales et de droits de l'homme, ou d'autres questions de durabilité importantes pour la société et l'économie mondiale.
- Vote : la politique de vote d'Amundi résulte d'une analyse globale de toutes les questions de long terme susceptibles d'avoir des répercussions sur la création de valeur, y compris les questions ESG importantes. Pour de plus amples informations, veuillez consulter la Politique de vote d'Amundi.
- Surveillance des controverses : Amundi a développé un système de surveillance des controverses qui repose sur trois fournisseurs de données afin de surveiller et suivre les controverses et leur niveau de gravité. Cette approche quantitative est enrichie par une évaluation approfondie de chaque controverse grave menée par des analystes ESG et par une révision périodique de son évolution. Cette approche s'applique à l'ensemble des fonds Amundi.

Quels ont été les principaux investissements de ce produit financier ?

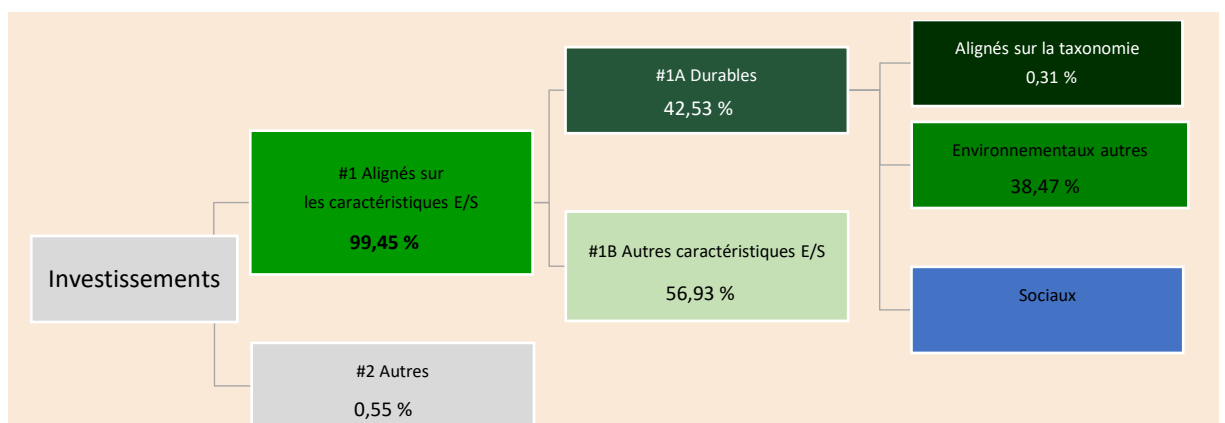

La liste comprend les investissements constituant la plus grande proportion d'investissements du produit financier au cours de la période de référence, à savoir : Du 01/10/2021 au 30/09/2022

Quelle était la proportion d'investissements liés à la durabilité ?

Quelle était l'allocation des actifs ?

L'allocation des actifs décrit la part des investissements dans des actifs spécifiques.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements du produit financier utilisés pour atteindre les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues par le produit financier.

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les investissements restants du produit financier qui ne sont ni alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales ni considérés comme des investissements durables.

La catégorie #1 Alignés sur les caractéristiques E/S comprend :

- la sous-catégorie #1A Durables couvrant les investissements durables sur le plan environnemental et social.
- la sous-catégorie #1B Autres caractéristiques E/S inclut les investissements alignés sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qui ne sont pas considérés comme des investissements durables.

- Dans quels secteurs économiques les investissements ont-ils été réalisés ?

Secteur	% d'actifs
Finance	75,16 %
Consommation discrétionnaire	10,68 %
Industrie	6,40 %
Services de communication	3,17 %
Consommation de base	1,75 %
Immobilier	0,98 %
Énergie	0,94 %
Technologie de l'information	0,43 %
Services aux collectivités	0,27 %
Forex	0,19 %
Liquidités	0,04 %

Les activités alignées sur la taxonomie sont exprimées en pourcentage :

- du chiffre d'affaires pour refléter la part des revenus provenant des activités vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements ;
- des dépenses d'investissement (CapEx) pour montrer les investissements verts réalisés par les sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements, pour une transition vers une économie verte par exemple ;
- des dépenses d'exploitation (OpEx) pour refléter les activités opérationnelles vertes des sociétés bénéficiaires des investissements.

Dans quelle mesure les investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental étaient-ils alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

Le fonds promeut des caractéristiques environnementales et sociales. Bien que le fonds ne se soit pas engagé à réaliser des investissements alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE, il a investi, au cours de la période de référence, 0,31 % dans des investissements durables alignés sur celle-ci. Ces investissements ont contribué aux objectifs d'atténuation du changement climatique de la taxonomie de l'UE.

L'alignement des entreprises bénéficiaires avec les objectifs susmentionnés de la taxonomie de l'UE est mesuré à l'aide des données relatives au chiffre d'affaires (ou aux recettes) et/ou à l'utilisation du produit des obligations vertes.

Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Le produit financier a-t-il investi dans des activités liées au gaz fossile et/ou à l'énergie nucléaire conformes à la taxonomie de l'UE¹ ?

- Oui
- Dans le gaz fossile Dans l'énergie nucléaire
- Non

Aucune donnée fiable relative à l'alignement avec la taxonomie de l'UE n'était disponible durant la période concernant le gaz fossile et l'énergie nucléaire.

Les graphiques ci-dessous font apparaître en vert le pourcentage d'investissements qui étaient alignés sur la taxonomie de l'UE. Étant donné qu'il n'existe pas de méthodologie appropriée pour déterminer l'alignement des obligations souveraines* sur la taxonomie, le premier graphique montre l'alignement sur la taxonomie par rapport à tous les investissements du produit financier, y compris les obligations souveraines, tandis que le deuxième graphique représente l'alignement sur la taxonomie uniquement par rapport aux investissements du produit financier autres que les obligations souveraines.

* Aux fins de ces graphiques, les « obligations souveraines » comprennent toutes les expositions souveraines.

Les activités habilitantes permettent directement à d'autres activités de contribuer de manière substantielle à la réalisation d'un objectif environnemental.

Les activités transitoires sont des activités pour lesquelles il n'existe pas encore de solutions de remplacement sobres en carbone et, entre autres choses, dont les niveaux d'émission de gaz à effet de serre correspondent aux meilleures performances réalisables.

 Ce symbole représente des investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental qui ne tiennent pas compte des critères applicables aux activités économiques durables sur le plan environnemental au titre de la taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part des investissements réalisés dans des activités transitoires et habilitantes ?

Au 30 septembre 2023, en utilisant comme indicateur le chiffre d'affaires et/ou les données relatives à l'utilisation des produits des obligations vertes, la part d'investissement du fonds dans les activités transitoires était de 0,00 % et la part d'investissement dans les activités habilitantes était de 0,00 %. Le pourcentage d'alignement des investissements du fonds avec la taxinomie de l'UE n'a pas été vérifié par les auditeurs du fonds ni une tierce partie.

- Où se situe le pourcentage d'investissements alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE par rapport aux périodes de référence précédentes ?

Pendant la période précédente, l'alignement sur la taxinomie n'a pas été déclaré, car à l'époque, aucune donnée fiable déclarée n'était disponible.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie de l'UE ?

La part d'investissements durables ayant un objectif environnemental non alignés sur la taxinomie était de 38,47 % à la fin de la période.

Cela est dû au fait que certains émetteurs sont considérés comme des investissements durables au titre du Règlement SFDR mais contiennent une part d'activités qui ne sont pas alignées sur les normes de la taxinomie de l'UE, ou pour lesquelles aucune donnée n'est encore disponible pour pouvoir réaliser une évaluation en termes de taxinomie de l'UE.

- Quelle était la part d'investissements durables sur le plan social ?

Ce produit ne s'est pas engagé à réaliser des investissements durables sur le plan social durant la période de référence.

- Quels étaient les investissements inclus dans la catégorie « autres », quelle était leur finalité et existait-il des garanties environnementales ou sociales minimales ?

La catégorie #2 Autres inclut les liquidités et les instruments détenus à des fins de gestion du risque de liquidité et de portefeuille.

- Quelles mesures ont été prises pour respecter les caractéristiques environnementales et/ou sociales au cours de la période de référence ?

du Produit repose également sur des politiques d'exclusions systématiques (normatives et sectorielles) telles que décrites plus avant dans la Politique d'investissement responsable d'Amundi.

Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier par rapport à l'indice de référence ?

Les indices de référence sont des indices permettant de mesurer si le produit financier atteint les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales qu'il promet.

- En quoi l'indice de référence diffère-t-il d'un indice de marché large ?

iBoxx MSCI ESG USD FRN Investment Grade Corporates TCA Index est un indice obligataire représentatif d'obligations à taux flottant (FRN) de type « investment grade » libellées en dollar, émises par des entreprises de pays développés qui suivent les règles de l'iBoxx USD FRN Investment Grade Corporates TCA Index (l'« Indice parent ») et appliquent des critères ESG pour la sélection des titres.

- Quelle a été la performance de ce produit financier au regard des indicateurs de durabilité visant à déterminer l'alignement de l'indice de référence sur les caractéristiques environnementales ou sociales promues ?
